PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-CEN, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Betterware de México, S.A.P.I. de C.V. (the "Company") has determined that it will not be able to file its Annual Report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022 (the "2022 Form 20-F") within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort and expense as a result of the following:

During the preparation of the Company's consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2022 (the "current year financial statements"), management concluded that certain prior year errors that were deemed to be immaterial, on an individual and aggregate basis, to the Company's previously reported consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2021 (the "prior year financial statements") under the SEC's Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 99, could not be corrected on an out-of-period basis in the current year financial statements because to do so would cause a material misstatement in those financial statements. Due to the decrease in profit before taxes from 2021 to 2022, materiality levels in the 2022 fiscal year for accounting purposes decreased to approximately half of the materiality levels established in fiscal year 2021. Therefore, the Company referred to the guidance prescribed by the SEC's Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 108 which specifies, among other things, that the errors must be corrected as an immaterial restatement of the prior year financial statements the next time those financial statements are filed. The expected impact of these adjustments will be to lower net income for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021 by approximately 5% and to increase the net income for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022 by approximately 6%. These estimates are subject to change based on final analysis and audit.

Accordingly, the Company is working diligently to complete all procedures related to correct the prior year errors by immaterially restating the prior year financial statements that will be included in the Company's 2022 Form 20-F within the fifteen-day grace period provided by Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes  No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, including, without limitation, the Company's expectations as to the outcome of its preparation and review of its financial statements.

These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, and actual results could vary materially from these forward-looking statements. Factors that may cause future results to differ materially from management's current expectations include, among other things, the discovery of additional information relevant to the internal review; the conclusions of management (and the timing of the conclusions) concerning matters relating to the internal review; the timing of the review by, and the conclusions of, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm regarding the internal review and the Company's financial statements; the possibility that errors may be identified; and the risk that the completion and filing of the Form 20-F will take longer than expected. The Company disclaims any obligation to update information contained in these forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.
